

Salvation Songs.

HOPELESS.
Tune.—Spanish Chant 00; Song-Book, 378.
Blessed Lamb of Calvary,
Let Thy Spirit all cleanse;
Let the cleansing, healing flow
Wash and keep me white as snow.
Henceforth my life may be Bright and beautiful for Thee.

Turn out every selfish thought,
Let Thy will in me be wrought;
Can my love into a flame,
Send a Pentecostal rain,
That henceforth my life may be Spent in winning souls for Thee.

Tunes.—I Have Washed My...
[Robes, B. J. 235.]
My robes were once all stain
Of with sin,
I knew not how to make them
clean,
Until a Voice said, sweet and low,
"Go wash, I'll make them white
as snow."

Chorus:
I've washed my robes in Jesus'
Blood,
And He has made them white as snow.

I do not doubt, nor do I say,
I hope the stains are washed away,
For in my heart I read it so:
His Blood it cleanses white as
snow.

Oh, who will come and wash tomorrow,
Will by faith, they see and know
Their robes are washed as white
as snow!

FREE AND EASY.
Tune.—Living Beneath the Shade 248; Song-Book No. 282.
'Tis best to be saved by fire
and blood,
'Tis best to be doing what's right and good,
'Tis best to wear garments whiter
than snow,
'Tis best to be saved all over.

'Tis best to be holy, best to be
clean,
'Tis best for no spots of sin to be seen,
'Tis best to be pure in body and soul,
'Tis best to be saved all over.

'Tis best to be perfect, best to be true,
'Tis best to have glory filling the
soul;

'Tis best to be trusting, best to have faith;
'Tis best to be saved all over.

Tunes.—Oh, the Voice! 00; Now I Can Read It.
It is the Blood that washes
white,
That makes me pure within,
That keeps the inward witness right,
That cleanses from all sin.

Chorus:
Oh, the Blood to me so dear!
In the Blood that sweeps away
The power of Satan's reign,
It shows the new and living way
That leads to Heaven and God.

It is the Blood that brings us nigh
To holiness and Heaven,
The source of victory and joy—
A good life for souls given.

It is the Blood that brings us nigh
To holiness and Heaven,
The source of victory and joy—
A good life for souls given.

It is the Blood that brings us nigh
To holiness and Heaven,
The source of victory and joy—
A good life for souls given.

It is the Blood that brings us nigh
To holiness and Heaven,
The source of victory and joy—
A good life for souls given.

SALVATION.

Tunes.—Christ for Me, 124; Song-
Book, 42.

5 The Saviour laid His crown
aside—
For the cross;
And there for all the world He died.

On the cross,
His cheeks were smote, His flesh
was torn,
His sacred temples felt the thorn,
While Heaven and earth in darkness mourn.

Round the cross
Quintessence was all upon Him laid
On the cross,
For all He hath Salvation made
On the cross.

His pierced feet, His hands and side
Pour forth redemption's healing tide.

Life's cleansing fount was opened wide
On the cross.

Away from worldly loss and gain,
Away from sorrow, doubt, and
pain,
Away from worldly loss and gain.

Away from worldly loss and gain,
Away from sorrow, doubt, and

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR DROWNED SOLDIERS

On Sunday night, Oct. 27th, at Selly Cove we conducted the memorial service of our comrades who were drowned at sea.
The Hall was packed to its most capacity, and the service was the most solemn ever held here. Some could be heard all over the building as the comrades gave testimony to the godly life of the dear departed ones. The testimony of the only brother was very feeling, he having attended three memorial meetings—that of his father who was drowned a few years ago, and of another brother who was drowned in sight of home, and now his only brother; all three finding their graves in the ocean. May God bless and comfort all the sorrowing ones in this village.—Mrs. Capt. J. Bond.

Expectation was very high regarding the visit of Colonel Bullard and his photographic assistants were to be magnificently displayed in all the chief stores of the town, the storekeepers thus evidencing their sympathy with the Army and the visit of our International Missionary Special. There was added interest

On Saturday last the Yorkville Songsters met at the Gladstone for a social gathering. The last speaker was the president of Captain Mitchell and Songster-Leader Sparks. There was a full attendance of the Brigade members and a very pleasant time was the result. The Captain and Songster-Leader spoke on matters affecting the Brigade's welfare and future efforts.

After this gathering the Brigade gave a very enjoyable programme of music and sang to a splendid crowd to the Senior Hall. The various sections by the Brigade were rendered with much skillfulness and taste, and the audience enjoyed the songs of Sparks. One item, "Dip down in the Sunday.—In spite of the snow and cold, great interest was shown by the splendid crowds, especially in the afternoon and night meetings, and the interest throughout the day was very great in all the various instances which the Colonel gave respecting the present need and difficulties of missionary work. At night our new officers had their welcome, and they were most heartily received.

AT SUDBURY.
We were delighted to welcome Colonel Bullard on a brief visit to Sudbury. The Colonel accompanied our Officers to the Open-air, and in spite of a very cold wind, a large crowd gathered round and listened with the greatest attention and interest to the Colonel's address. They also re-

In spite of the fact that many of them in their work had been for hours soaked through during the day time, yet they showed their interest and devotion by coming up the meeting at night, and all those present were certainly fully repaid for the sacrifice it entailed, as the Colonel's lecture and lantern views were such as are seldom seen in Parramatta, and will long be remembered.

Widespread Effects of War

As a result of the exodus of the 100,000 Chinese railroad workmen from China to the war, work has been slowed down for the year on the Trans-Siberian Railway. Seven thousand Chinese workmen have been deported. They are being held in camps by the Russians, bound under oath to fight for the Russians whenever the call comes.

THE WAR CRY

In addition to the public farewell gathering of Brigadier and Mrs. Bond at the Temple on Sunday night, Nov. 17th, a farewell banquet and gathering will be held in the Council Chamber at T. H. Q. on Monday night, when all T. H. Q. Staff (including the Officers and employees of the Printing and Publishing Departments), and a number of city Officers, will be present. The Brigadier and his wife and family will be leaving for Montreal on Friday morning at 9 a.m., and will sail from Montreal on the Saturday morning. May God go with them and give them a safe passage!

We regret to hear that Brigadier Potter, the Financial Secretary, is suffering from a severe attack of grippe. The Brigadier has been confined to his bed since last Friday. His condition, however, now shows signs of improvement.

The Cadets' Band at the Training College. Hanagan, Staff Bandmaster, Instructs

For nearly fifty years our late General planned and worked to bring into existence, and to perfect, The Salvation Army to which we are proud to belong. But let us think for a moment, what it has meant to him: hard toil, the conflicts, the wounds, the agonizing

Let me call the attention of every Officer to the Hand Book issued in connection with the scheme. Please read it carefully, and so far as it is possible adopt and work the suggestions offered therein. Use every bit of printed matter to the best possible advantage. Should you require any more we have a small quantity in reserve which we shall be glad to supply to any Officer in the order in which requests are received, until the supply is exhausted.

In closing, will you be good enough to inform "The War Cry" with the results of the scheme, giving any interesting facts that have occurred.

May abundant success be yours, and may we be able to rejoice over a sweeping victory from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp and family will leave the Toronto Union Depot for New York on Monday, Nov. 18, sailing from New York to South America on Wednesday the 20th. God bless them! They will be held in loving remembrance by many in Canada.

CHRISTMAS WAR CRY

The Great Canadian Pictorial

WHAT THE PUBLISHER SAYS ABOUT IT:

THE CHRISTMAS WAR CRY for 1912 will, according to the Editor, deal all previous issues. That is also the opinion of the Printing Office people.

As our comrades know, THE CHRISTMAS CRY is composed of four sections.

1. The Covers. 2. The Pictorial Section.

3. The Supplement. 4. The Literary Section.

THE COVER PICTURES are each printed in full colours, and are easily the finest piece of printing ever accomplished by The Salvation Army. The front page is a splendid example of glowing colour, and shows a young girl in a purple coat and hood taking a Christmas Baskin to a distressed family in Shacktown. A glorious sunset forms the background. It is a study in purple and gold.

The picture on the fourth page of the Cover is a fine example of Rocky Mountain Scenery, and shows a bend in the Kicking Horse River. It is a sample of the scenery witnessed by British immigrants on their way to British Columbia.

Page two of the Cover contains a splendid duotone reproduction of General Bramwell Booth with an autograph message to Canadian readers. It is an exceedingly fine picture, in a grey setting, and will meet with general satisfaction.

THE SUPPLEMENT is a charming picture by that celebrated Painter, E. A. Waterlow. It is entitled "The Nursery," and shows a cottage with a couple of young children, who with staring interest look upon a motherless lamb feeding out of a bottle.

THE PICTORIAL SECTION contains one of the finest collections of pictures we have ever printed. On page one is a magnificent reproduction in two colours of the glorified Founder of The Salvation Army.

Another picture is "The Mail in a Canadian Mining Camp," by a well known English artist.

There are also pictures of the Territorial Staff Band, "Har First Uniform," "The Madonna and the Infant Jesus," "A Vigil in Shacktown," a series of Sea-hunting pictures, with a pictorial page for children to complete this section.

Then the following list of articles, stories, and sketches will show the varied character of the reading matter which is freely illustrated with line and wash drawings and photographs:

THE GENERAL IN HIS VALEN. By the Commissioner.

THE FRANKLIN CRUISE OF A HOLY LIFE. By the Commissioner.

A SKETCH OF THE TERRITORIAL STAFF BAND.

SALVATIONISTS OF INTERNATIONAL INFLUENCE. Being personal sketches and portraits of a number of leading Officers of International Headquarters.

THE ARMY'S HUMANITARIAN WORK IN CANADA. A highly interesting and instructive article.

A PENITENT-POOR ROMANCE is a story of great human interest.

FROM DEVIL-WORD TO CHRISTIANITY.

THE WORK OF THE MISSING AND ENQUIRY DEPARTMENT.

JOHN Short Stories, Poems, etc. Altogether a splendid number.

Make arrangements with your Officer for a supply right away. You could not send a more seasonable or more acceptable gift to the friends in the Old Land than a CHRISTMAS CRY.

Salvation Songs.

HOLINESS.

Blessed Lord, 153; Austria, 162;
Song-Book, No. 421.
O Thou God of full salvation,
King of righteousness divine,
Author of the new creation,
Light of life, within us shine!
Make us holy!
With Thy blessing make us Thine!

From all self and sin deliver,
With Thy nature make us good;
Make us kings and priests for ever,
Wash our garments in Thy blood.
O'er our Army
Send a great salvation flood.

But of righteousness arising,
Cheer us while we bear the cross,
Living, dying, sacrifice,
Purify from sinful dress
Thy disciples.
Teach us how to gain by loss.

2 I thirst, Thou wounded Lamb of God,
To wash me in Thy cleansing blood.
To dwell within Thy wounds: then
I gain
In awe, and life or death is gain.

Take my poor heart, and let it be
For ever closed to all but Thee:
Still Thou my heart, and let me wear
That piece of love for ever here.

O conquering Jesus, Saviour Thou,
To Thee, let all our souls bow:
To Thee our hearts and hands we give,
Thine we will die: Thine we will live!

Tune.—Confidence, 4; Song-Book, 179.

WAR AND TESTIMONY.

Tune.—"God is Keeping," 232.
3 God is keeping His soldiers fighting.

From now we shall conquerors be:
All the hosts of Hell are uniting.
But we're sure to have victory,
Though to beat us they've been trying.
Our colors are still flying,
And our flag shall wave forever
For we never will give in.

Chorus:
No, we never, never, never will give in, no, we won't.
For we mean to have the victory forever.

We will follow our conquering
Saviour:
From Joseph Him Hell's legions shall fly.
Our battles shall never waver:
They're determined to conquer or die.
From hell and heaven
Whoever will be driven:
We will stand our ground forever,
For we never will give in.

Tune.—My Home is in Heaven, 253;
Song-Book, 424.

4 I have a home that is fairer than any,
And my dear Saviour has shown me
the way:
Oh, when I'm sad and temptations
arise,
I look to my home for aid.

Friends I shall see who have journeyed
so before,
And landed safe on that beautiful shore.
I shall see Jesus, that will be my joy,
In that bright home far away.

Oh, who will journey to Heaven with me?
Jesus has died that we all may go free:
Come, then, to Him who has purchased for you,
A crown in that home far away.

SALVATION.

Tune.—"Bring in the Sheaves," 215.
5 Blower, thou art speeding,
Down to death, unheeding:
Near the Saviour, bleeding,
Haste, oh, haste away!
From His mercy fleeing.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 27.—Opening of new Citadel.

Dying love will surrender,
Over thee He's yearning:
Oh, get saved to-day!

Chorus:
Coming home to-day, coming home
to-day:—
Sinners and backsliders are coming
home to-day,
Coming home to-day, coming home
to-day.

Glorious, hallelujah! they're coming
home to-day.
Often He has called thee
To accept salvation:
Often He has waited
At thy heart's closed door.
Outside still He's standing:
Now His Spirit's striving,
Will you heed His knocking—
Let Him in to-day!

Tune.—No other argument, 65; Song-
Book, 77.

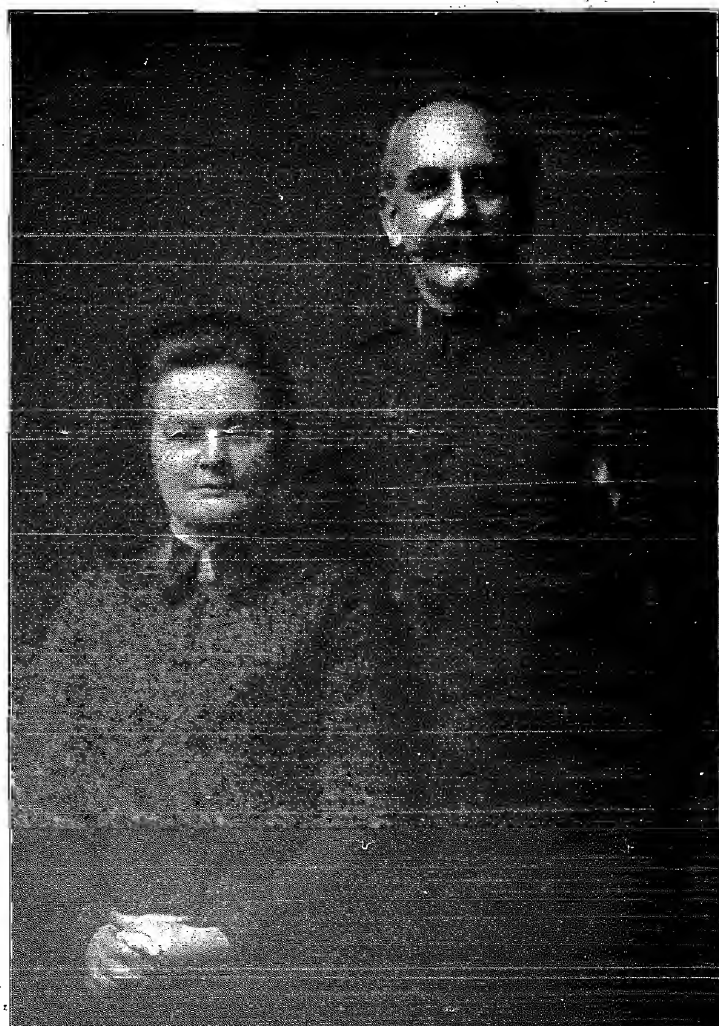

6 Jesus, the same high over all,
In hell, or earth, or sky:
Angels and men before Him fall,
And devils fear and fly.

Jesus, the same to sinners dear,
The same to sinners dear:
He watters off their guilty fear,
He turns their Hell to Heaven.

Jesus the prisoner's fetters break,
And breaks Satan's hold:
Power into strongholds, come
He'll speak,
And life into the dead.
